The Kearny Alliance

We are a US 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization whose mission is Aid through Trade. This scholarship is offered through Kearny Alliance Asia.

The Kearny Alliance focuses on four interlinked programmatic areas, namely: Export-led Livelihood development and Job creation; Trade-related education and skills training, and; Trade policy research.

We support Scholars from mainland China, Myanmar, Cambodia and Vietnam who study business and journalism in Hong Kong, and mainland China Scholars studying for their MBAs at Thunderbird School of Global Management in the USA. We are expanding our stipend support to universities in the Philippines and mainland China.

Stipend support

Kearny Alliance offers full stipend support. The following costs will be covered at a basic level:

- Academic tuition and mandatory fees for the duration of the course, including examination.
- A monthly stipend for room and board, and living expenses sufficient for a single student.
- Basic medical insurance for the duration of study.
- Support for educational supplies and materials.
- Transport for the student to travel one time from their home to the campus and to return at the end of the program.
- All costs related to securing and maintaining a student visa for the duration of study.

Scholar undertaking requirement

One of our goals is to give Scholars a solid career foundation in a trade-related field to help Scholars develop marketable skills and contribute to the mission of the Kearny Alliance.

To that end, each Scholar is required to sign a binding Memorandum of Understanding that requires the Scholar to undertake – if a posting is offered – an internship and work for a period of two years upon graduation with Global Sources (<http://www.globalsources.com> NASDAQ: GSOL) in a role and geographic location paid at local market rates.

Application materials required

1. Resume stating concentration, objective, work experience and education achievement.
2. One academic and one professional letter of reference.
3. Copies of transcripts, and any official English language exams results (eg: TOEFL or IELTS).
4. Scanned copy of your passport photo page/school ID.

Application deadline

Applications may be sent by email to Yvonne@hkbu.edu.hk and must be received by March 31, 2011.
